

1

1. Make the "2D" shapes. Use straw pieces to reinforce the corners, then wrap the shape in tape to hold it together

2

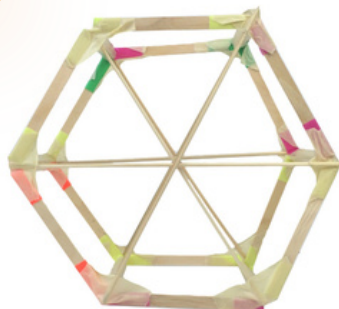

2. Choose a central shape (in this case, a square), then tape identical shapes onto each side

3

3. Fold all sides inward and tape together to form the 3D geometric shape

4

4. Experiment with more complex shapes and other materials!